Harvest Festival and Macmillan Coffee Afternoon

Thank you to all the parents and community members who attended our Harvest Service in St Lucia's church last Wednesday. Thank you also to everyone who made, donated and bought cakes in support of the Macmillan coffee afternoon. A total of £230 was raised!

All the donations of food which parents kindly provided will be sent to 'The Ark' in Shrewsbury shortly.

'How to support your child towards the Key Stage One SATs' for Year 2 Parents

Thank you for returning the replies to the letter we sent home about this important session. Please attend if you can as invaluable information will be shared to support Year 2 pupils.

Welcome!

We welcome the new Curate, Lisa Knight who has recently joined the Wrockwardine Deanary. Lisa has visited the school this morning and will be helping Diane Woolridge to lead the Welcome assembly for the Reception class next Tuesday 9th October (9.10am).

School Uniform

Now the new term is underway, please note the following polite reminders regarding school uniform:

- ◇ Any earrings worn in school need to be small, plain studs. It is advised that children do not wear earrings on their P.E. days for safety reasons. If children can not remove the earrings themselves, they need to bring tape or plasters from home to cover them.
- ◇ Plain white t-shirts (or with the St Lucia's logo) are needed for P.E.
- ◇ Long hair is to be tied back/up.
- ◇ Coats and dark sensible shoes (not trainers) are also needed daily.

The Parents' Appointment replies need to be returned to school by WEDNESDAY MORNING AT THE LATEST.

Nursery Places

We currently have places available in our Nursery for children aged 2 year old and above. Please contact the school directly for more information.

Sunrise (Breakfast) and Sunset (After School) Clubs

Places are currently available also for our extended school clubs which offer flexibility to working parents. The Sunrise club runs from 7.45am with a later option of 8.30am drop off for only £2.50 per session.

The Sunrise club runs until 5.30pm and includes a snack. There is also an earlier collection option until 4.15pm for only £3 per session. Please contact Mrs Sims at the school for further booking details.
