Thank You

A big thank you to the parents who attended the Reception welcome assembly last Monday and also the Reception Phonics workshop. We really value your support.

Nursery Forest School

All nursery children are welcome to book a place for the Friday morning Forest School sessions. These are now up and running at the Blackwoods Butterflies site (Attingham Park) and replace the previous Wednesday afternoon Forest School sessions here within the school site. Please contact Jacqui Reacord via the nursery for more information.

Harvest and Macmillan

Parents and grandparents are welcome to attend our Harvest services this Wednesday 25th September in the school hall. The service for Class 1 and 2 will begin at 1:30pm followed by the service for Class 3 and 4 at 2pm.

The Macmillan coffee afternoon will also be held during and after the services between 1:30pm-3:30pm. Thank you for returning the replies which we have used to help us organise the numbers for this event. .

Donations of cakes and biscuits would very much be appreciated!

Food Donations

As part of the Harvest celebrations, we ask annually for dried or tinned food donations which are collected for the local food bank. Please add any items you have into the collection box in the main entrance area. This can be anytime between Tuesday 24th September -Tuesday 1st October.

Governor Vacancies

Please see the governor vacancy letter which has been sent today. We currently have one parent and one community governor vacancy. The return date for this information is Monday 30th September.

Home-time Collection

Thank you for supporting the end of day Collection arrangements by arriving promptly at the end of the school day and reminding your child to not use the playground equipment or school grounds at hand over time. Families are very welcome to return to the school site after
