Church/Community Links

Posada Bags

Thank you to Rev. Lisa Knight from the Wrockwardine Deanery for providing each class with a Posada bag. These will be sent home on a rotation basis. A note is inside the bag to explain the activity and its purpose.

The Children's Society Collection

Money boxes for the Children's Society have arrived in school. A collection can be made in each class. There are also spare money boxes if any families wished to take one home to fill and return for this charity.

School Choir

Thank you for the choir replies. Just a reminder that the first event will be the Christingle service this Sunday 11am in St Lucia's church. Parents are to accompany and supervise their own child. Everyone from school is welcome to attend this service. Children in the Reception class and Year 1 and 2 will be making the Christingles at the end of this week.

Uniform Reminders

Coats

Now the weather is turning cold and wet, please check your child brings a warm coat to school each day.

Earrings

Small plain studs only please. Earrings are to be removed on P.E. days, or tape provided from home which your child is not allergic to.

Shoes

Plain, dark, sensible shoes. No trainers.
ALL CLOTHING TO BE CLEARLY LABELLED

Birmingham Museum

Children in Key Stage 2 enjoyed a full day at Birmingham Museum last week and learned lots of information to support their curriculum topic on the Ancient Egyptians.

Flu Immunisations

The NHS have asked for confirmation from schools in preparation for the Flu immunisations on 6th December. This year, all year groups will be offered the immunisation. If you have still not informed school, please let us know by tomorrow. Consent is needed, or notification if you do not wish your child to receive the immunisation, or if another appointment has been arranged for this through the NHS.
