Children in Need

Thank you for all the donations we received from the non uniform pyjama day on Friday and for all the cakes that were very kindly donated and bought at the cake sale. A total of £230 was raised for Children in Need from St Lucia's School this year! Well done everyone!

SPAG workshop Year 2 parents

On Thursday 26th November at 2pm. Parents of children in Year 2 are invited to attend a workshop which will share information about the new spelling, punctuation and grammar requirements which children are being taught in Year 2 this year. Please see attached letter for further details.

Parents' appointments and Open afternoon

It was wonderful to see such a positive turn out for the parents' appointments and open afternoon last week. We hope you found the time to be useful in providing you with updates on your child's progress and development.

We will look to organise some maths workshops for parents in the spring term in line with the new maths calculation changes in response to the views we collected.

100 Club Draw

Congratulations to Mr Pattison who won our November draw with number 42. A £25 cheque will be on its way to you shortly!

Lego Workshops

Class 1 and 2 recently visited the Shrewsbury museum to take part in Lego workshops. Lots of skills including IT, story planning, model making and teamwork were involved. Some excellent story boards have been created using the Lego APP in both classes.
