

My Recipe For Winter

First gather freezing ,cold snowballs with fluffy blue and white mittens.

Next add a cold glistening cobweb with icy frost.

Sprinkle in some damp, cold feathers from a robin's red breast.

Disperse frosty mist through the magical morning.

Season with icy twigs from a bird's nest.

Add a tiny piece of ivy and some holly.

Pour in sweet hot chocolate with squishy marshmallows.

After sit by a rich fire.

Make trees stand with no autumn leaves.

Make winds cold but let them blow on.

If you listen your winter will come.
